

2022-23 Mentorship Program

Program Goals

- Facilitate genuine cross-generational connection and mentorship
- Professional development and knowledge transfer specific to the performing arts presenting field
- Networking and peer support; support for new and emerging talent, as well as long-serving professionals

Timeline

July 1, 2022	Applications open
July 29, 2022	Applications due
August 5, 2022	Matches Confirmed
August 2022 – March 2023	8-Month Mentorship Program Period
August 2022	Full Cohort Kick-off
Monthly	Individual Mentorship Team Zoom Meetings
March 2023	Full Cohort Wrap-up

Structure

- Three-person Mentorship Teams with one experienced professional, one mid-career, and one new to the field
- Full 2022-23 Cohort to meet at least twice, at minimum for the program's kick-off and conclusion. Additional Cohort gatherings may occur as part of conferences and/or regional meet ups.
- Individual Mentorship Teams to meet via Zoom monthly over the 8-month program period
- Team matches will be made based on goals expressed for the program by each applicant, professional goals, experience, and personality
- One Michigan Presenters board member will check in with team members throughout the 8-month program period for feedback and support

Participant Expectations

- Employed by an organization that is a member of the Michigan Presenters Network
- Attend Cohort kick-off and wrap-up sessions
- Participation in 90% of monthly Membership Team meetings
- Participation in a majority of MPN Member meetings, regional meet ups, conferences, and other membership-wide initiatives
- Participate in program evaluation

Applications are due July 29, 2022; applications can be completed here.

Questions? Contact president Katie Miller at president@michiganpresenters.org or 989-631-5930x1208.

MISSION: The Michigan Presenters Network (Michigan Presenters), founded in 1991, is a statewide coalition of presenting organizations, artists, managers, agents, and others that are committed to the advancement and presentation of the performing arts. Michigan Presenters nurtures organizational leadership, professional development, and knowledge exchange in the performing arts.